Keeping up with the new books

To keep up with newly published history books in the Bodleian and History Faculty Library, historians can browse the New Book Displays in URR and the Upper Gladstone Link. They are updated weekly.

For busy bees and sofa surfers, there is also a more extensive virtual new book list on our online LibraryThing account HistoryattheBodleian. For more details, see:

<http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/history/collections/acquisition>

Our LibraryThing account captures newly received ebooks, including eLegal Deposit, as well as printed books received for British & West European history in the Bodleian and all of the HFL's new books. Books are tagged by subject, historical period as well as country and include links to SOLO.

If you want tailored new book alerts to match your research interests, just email isabel.holowaty@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.

Act on Acceptance and the HEFCE OA Policy

The Faculty needs to take cognizance of and act promptly to integrate into its research culture the online recording of the journal articles and conference publications of individual faculty members.

The key points are:

1. Only journal articles and conference publications with ISSNs deposited in ORA will be eligible for submission to the REF.
2. This deposit requirement does not apply to monographs.
3. Deposit is made via Symplectic, which acts as a 'letter box' for ORA.
4. This policy starts on 1 April 2016.
5. The version of the journal article and conference publication accepted by the journal or editor – NOT the published version – has to be deposited within THREE MONTHS of acceptance. Hence the formula Act on Acceptance.
6. The full published text will become available after the embargo period imposed by journals. This is usually 24 months after date of publication. Bodleian staff will take care of this.

The system can be easily accessed at openaccess.ox.ac.uk.

The following are in place to facilitate the system:

a) the Director of Research, Dr Robert Gildea, acts as a 'champion' for the system; explaining, publicizing etc.

b) the Faculty's Librarian, Isabel Holowaty, is available with technical information e.g. what should be deposited, help with citations, troubleshooting, etc.

For help or advice email the Open Access team at open-access-enquiries@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.

Tip: Login to Symplectic now, using your SSO, and check your profile: <https://oxris.ox.ac.uk/>
