What's new

Network downtime in the RSL

From Friday 28th June until Friday 5th July, the IT network at the RSL will be upgraded. This will necessitate parts of the library being without network connections for some of the time between 8.30am and 1pm on these dates. Full details are at <http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/science/news/network-downtime-at-the-rsl>.

Open Access

The next Open Access at Oxford workshop is on Wednesday 3rd July (11.00-12.00) in the RSL Training Room. Book now at <http://courses.it.ox.ac.uk/detail/TZW7>.

To request a presentation in your department, please email open-access-enquiries@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.

Open Access Week 2013

Now in its 6th year, international Open Access Week 2013 will take place 21st-27th October. A programme of events is planned for Oxford - details will be publicised nearer the time. Presentations from last year's events can be found at <http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/science/resources/open-access>.

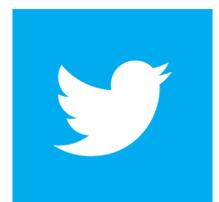

Twitter event

Slides from the recent RSL event "Join the conversation with Twitter" are now online at <http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/science/news/presentations-twitter>.

Tweets from the day used the hashtags #brownbagtwittertalks and #brownbagtwitterlunch.

RSL refurbishment

New furniture has been installed on Levels 5 and 7 in the rooms at the east end (above the Abbot's Kitchen). There are now comfortable seating options, and tables whose tops can be used as whiteboards.

Librarians' visit to Cambridge Medical Library

On a very wet Thursday 23 May 2013, a group of ten library staff from the Radcliffe Science Library and Bodleian Health Care Libraries made their way to Cambridge where they were welcomed by staff at the Cambridge University Medical Library, the Central Science Library and the Betty and Gordon Moore Library. The Medical Library has been refurbished recently, and provides a pleasant working environment for University members as well as NHS staff working in the Cambridge area. The Library has extensive computing facilities upstairs, with 'pods' for group work downstairs. Access to e-Legal Deposit material is provided via a stand-alone computer next to the Help Desk. Opening hours are 8am-9.50pm Mon-Fri and 9am-4.50pm on Saturdays. Thanks to Donald Mackay for organising the trip and facilitating a fruitful exchange of ideas for Outreach and other service areas.

Linda Atkinson retiring

Many of our readers will be familiar with Linda Atkinson. As Reader Services and Outreach Team Manager at Bodleian Health Care Libraries, Linda has been a mainstay of our services to the Medical Sciences Division and the NHS since 2005. She has taken the lead locally in a wide range of areas – including, BHCL's support for the Research Excellence Framework and our support for open access publishing following the Finch Report. She has also made significant contributions to regional NHS library activity across South Central and beyond.

Linda has made the decision to retire on 31 July this year and she will be sorely missed by her colleagues in the library service as well as across the MSD and the OUH Trust.

On behalf of myself and all of her colleagues I would like to thank Linda for her hard work and support, and wish her all the best for a long and happy retirement.

Research Skills Toolkit shortlisted as example of Best Practice

The Research Skills Toolkit, designed and run jointly by the Bodleian Libraries and IT Services, has been shortlisted as one of 15 examples of best practice in information skills training for postgraduate students in the UK by the Research Information and Digital Literacies Coalition (RIDLS). The full report and short list are available on the project website at <http://rilads.wordpress.com>. Bodleian Health Care Libraries staff provide 4 Research Skills Toolkit sessions per year, and about 30 postgraduates attend each session.
