A GLOBE TOURING PRODUCTION

The Winter's Tale

BY WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

The historic surroundings of Oxford University's Bodleian Library Quadrangle host Globe Touring's The Winter's Tale.

Convincing himself of his wife's infidelity, Leontes, King of Sicilia, is driven into a jealous rage. Leontes is unmoved despite the entreaties of his wife and a proclamation from the Oracle of Apollo. The disastrous consequences of Leontes' actions reverberate across generations and national borders. Only his daughter, Perdita, left for dead in the wilds of Bohemia in her infancy, survives to redeem the tale.

The Playhouse Plays Out series is proud to bring Shakespeare's Globe and the Bodleian Library together to create an unforgettable contemporary setting for one of William Shakespeare's finest plays. In the hands of Director John Dove (The Clean House), this tale of jealousy, love and redemption is masterfully played.
