

Bodleian Libraries Implementation Plan 6.2: Provide tailored support for Centres for Doctoral Training (CDTs)

Below is an snapshot of Oxford's CDTs for 2014-15 according to their funding bodies.
Further details can be found at www.dtc.ox.ac.uk

Centres for Doctoral Training (CDTs) provide students with challenging 4-year doctoral programmes. These combine advanced taught courses in the first year followed by research projects in Oxford Departments or in industry. They are funded by research grant awarding bodies and focus on a specific area, usually interdisciplinary in nature.
