Alumni

Bodleian Libraries - supporting our Alumni

On behalf of the Bodleian Libraries, I am delighted to extend an invitation to all our Oxford Alumni to enjoy the services and resources featured on these pages. This includes the opportunity to apply for continued access to the reading rooms in Oxford, along with the opportunity to attend our exhibitions, lectures, seminars and other events featured throughout the year. As part of our commitment to lifelong learning, it also gives us great pleasure to extend access to a number of online journals and databases for Oxford Alumni to access remotely, anywhere and at any time, free of charge.

You are all graduates of the Bodleian Libraries!
