Bodleian iSkills sessions for Hilary 2016

The next Bodleian iSkills sessions on Open Access (taking place at the RSL on 18 February and 1 March) are for anyone who wants a crash course in OA, missed their "Act on Acceptance" departmental briefing or hasn't had the opportunity to attend one (such as DAs/PAs being asked to deposit on academics' behalf). Book at <http://courses.it.ox.ac.uk/detail/TZW7>.

There is also a brand new iSkills session introducing ORCID at Oxford happening on 29 February at the RSL. Book at <http://courses.it.ox.ac.uk/detail/TZW71>. More information on ORCID can be found at <http://ox.libguides.com/orcid>.

Other Bodleian iSkills sessions are listed at <http://ox.libguides.com/workshops/workshopsbydate>.

Tell us what you think about the Cairns Library

We're looking at options for a further refurbishment of the Cairns Library. The aims are to improve the facilities that we offer library users and to free up space for use by other parts of the Medical Sciences Division.

What we'll be able to do will depend on what funding is available but may include:

- better quiet study facilities such as a large and enclosed quiet study room (with glass walls)
- extra power sockets
- improved group study and training facilities
- display spaces for artwork and research posters that reflect work going on in the MSD and the OUH

Please take a look at the two very rough draft possible options on our web pages and let us have your thoughts/comments/suggestions via hcl-enquiries@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.

Research Skills Training Programme 2016

Details of this RSL programme of short courses to support researchers can be found at <http://tinyurl.com/ho7gw9c>.

#OxEngage Programme 2016

#OxEngage is organised by IT Services and the Bodleian Libraries, and offers events exploring the use of digital technologies for use in impact, outreach and engagement.

This year's programme can be found at <http://blogs.it.ox.ac.uk/engage/oxengage/oxengage2016/>.

New journals

We are pleased to announce that access to 21 biomedical online journals from Adis are now available to members of the University. A full list of titles can be found at www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/medicine and include Drugs, Sports Medicine, American Journal of Clinical Dermatology, and Reactions Weekly.

Nature Microbiology is a new online-only journal, publishing monthly from January 2016 and is available now to all members of the University at www.nature.com/nmicrobiol/.

Laboratory Medicine is the journal of the American Society for Clinical Pathology and can be accessed at <http://labmed.oxfordjournals.org/>.

Edible Book Festival and other events for Hilary at the RSL

To celebrate World Book Day on Thursday 3 March the Radcliffe Science Library is holding an Edible Book Festival! Everyone is invited to enter their book-themed culinary creations – all entries will be exhibited, documented, then eaten! Details are at <http://tinyurl.com/j8cp42f>.

Have your say: Bodleian's Reader Survey 8 - 29 February

The Bodleian Libraries is inviting all members of the University to share their feedback about the Libraries by completing a short online Reader Survey. This includes feedback from staff or students who might never use our physical libraries. The survey takes about 10 minutes to complete but provides vital information that feeds into decision making and helps improve library services.

The survey is open from 8 – 29 February, and is for all readers who have used the physical libraries or the online collections. In addition to members of the University, feedback is welcome from external researchers who have a Bodleian Libraries card, including NHS and alumni. Readers are asked to share their views on areas such as the provision of information resources, the libraries as a study spaces, how staff treat readers, information skills and support, and their overall satisfaction with library support for research, teaching and learning. Responses are confidential. No identifying links between responses and the individual responding will be retained. As a thank, participants can choose to enter a prize draw to win one of ten £50 Amazon vouchers.

The Bodleian is continually seeking feedback from readers, and conducts a readership-wide survey every 3-4 years. Numerous enhancements have been made to the library service in response to feedback received from the last Reader Survey in 2012. These include increasing library opening hours, improving the usability of SOLO, improving the study environment in Reading Rooms and buying more e-books.

Preliminary results from this year's Reader Survey will be posted on the Bodleian Libraries' website in April.

Take the Reader Survey at: www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/reader-survey.
