Open Access news

UAS Conference

The Bodleian Libraries Open Access team will be at the UAS Conference on Tuesday 27 September at the Examination Schools, with a presentation 9.30-10am (Get an update on Oxford's 'Act on Acceptance' campaign and remind yourself what researchers need to do for REF-eligibility and other OA requirements). There will also be an information stand available all day for help and information on Open Access, ORA, ORCID, Research Data Management and Symplectic Elements. Details can be found at <https://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/uasconference/structure/>.

Compliance with Wellcome Trust Open Access policy
Congratulations to Oxford authors on their high rate of compliance with the Wellcome Trust Open Access policy. A snapshot report showed a rise from 88% to 91.4% between December 2013 and August 2015, considerably higher than the national rate of 75%.

Science Transit Shuttle

This new service connects the Science Area with the Harwell and Old Road campuses, and is available to staff and visitors. See <http://sciencetransitshuttle.co.uk/> for details.

Bodleian Health Care Libraries Welcomes New Clinical Medicine Students!

Welcome to the new Fourth Year Clinical Medicine students and Graduate Entry Medicine students joining us 'up the hill' in Headington! Our libraries in all four of the OUH hospitals provide you with a wide range of facilities including:

- 24/7 access to the Cairns Library with your University Card
- Bookable Group Study Rooms at the Cairns Library and Knowledge Centre
- Quiet study spaces away from busy wards and classrooms
- Multiple copies of Clinical Reading Lists textbooks available in print and (in many cases) online - see <http://tinyurl.com/gsstygl> for our online reading lists
- Laptop and iPads that you can borrow
- 1-2-1 help and advice on search skills, managing references and a range of other topics

We'll be contacting you soon with details of your NHS OpenAthens username and password. This will let you access the online content that's available to NHS staff in England - including the BNF app on your mobile device.

RESEARCH SOFTWARE
DEVELOPERS NETWORK

Research Software Developers Network

The RSDN is a University-wide network of Research Software Developers (RSDs): those who combine expertise in programming and/or data development with an intricate understanding of research, and who support the work of researchers in developing or customising the software that is fundamental to so much modern research. For details see <https://rsdn.oerc.ox.ac.uk>.

Open Days

The RSL will offer tours to prospective students and their parents on Friday 16 September as part of the University's undergraduate Open Day. See <http://tinyurl.com/open-day-Sept> for details.

Henry Stewart Talks

Are you looking for materials to support your teaching or learning? Check out Henry Stewart Talks (<https://hstalks.com/>). This collection provides access to online seminars in the biomedical and life sciences, and new contents are added regularly. The resource now includes a new series titled ALS and Other Motor Neuron Disorders (<http://tinyurl.com/ALS-other-MND>), edited by Dr. Kevin Talbot from the University of Oxford. Individual titles or the full collection are available from SOLO (<http://solo.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/>). You can browse the list of seminars by subject categories or search for "University of Oxford" to view all additions from Oxford. For off-campus access, this resource requires a username and password other than Single-Sign-On. Contact karine.barker@bodleian.ox.ac.uk or go to WebLearn at <http://tinyurl.com/HSTalks> to access log-in details.

Changes to PCAS

From 6 September PCAS (Print, Copy and Scan) account authentication will switch to the Bodleian Libraries username and password (which is also used to login to reading room PCs and Bodleian Libraries WiFi). Existing PCAS accounts will need to be updated and an online portal and library staff will be available to facilitate this. Full details can be found at www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/using/copy/pcas/development.

BMJ Best Practice – Access ended with subscription expiry

We regret to announce that access to BMJ Best Practice ended on July 31st. This was funded as a 12 month trial by a grant from the Nuffield Oxford Hospitals Fund. Unfortunately we have not yet been able to identify other sources of funding to renew the subscription and access will now expire. However, we are continuing our cost-saving efforts to increase our budgets for online resources. BMJ Best Practice has been added to our title wish list and if funding can be found then access another subscription will be considered.
