Charity Open Access Fund (COAF) block grant

We are expecting to receive a new COAF grant for the year 1st October 2018 - 30th September 2019. Once confirmation has been received we will revert to our central claims process via the Bodleian APC team. This affects researchers funded by Arthritis Research UK, Bloodwise, British Heart Foundation, Cancer Research UK and Parkinson's UK. Check our COAF page at <http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/wellcome-and-coaf/> for latest information.

Seminar on Reproducibility and Open Research, Michaelmas term 2018

This seminar series will serve to promote the idea of transparent, accessible, and reproducible research and features speakers from a variety of academic disciplines, focusing on how general principles can be adopted and adapted by researchers in a diverse range of fields. All seminars take place in the Old Library, All Souls College, Wednesdays 4.30-6pm. All are welcome and refreshments are provided. Details of the programme can be found at

<http://users.ox.ac.uk/~phys1213/ReproAtASC.html>

3D/VR event at the RSL

Find out more about the RSL's 3D printing service and VR equipment at a free drop-in session in the Entrance Hall Lounge on Friday 19 October, 1-4pm.

More information about the RSL's 3D and VR services can be found at

Unhealthy Times of Kings and Queens

This display, which can be found in Blackwell Hall, Weston Library until 11 November, explores whether today's evidence-based interventions could have changed the course of history. The display is curated by staff from the Centre for Evidence-Based Medicine, Nuffield Department of Primary Care Health Sciences, led by Professor Carl Heneghan. Further details can be found at <https://tinyurl.com/unhealthyKQ>.

Bodleian iSkills programme for Michaelmas term

The programme is now online at

<https://libguides.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/workshops/workshopsbydate>.

The Bodleian Healthcare Libraries are running a series of free iSkills workshops this term, including introductions to the reference management software Endnote or Mendeley, Search Skills for DPhils and Introduction to Systematic Reviews & Evidence Synthesis.

Sessions this month include: Managing research data and Data Management Plans (DMPs), digital theses and Open Access, your thesis, copyright and ORA, and data sources for research.

Master Techniques in Orthopaedic Surgery

The Bodleian Health Care Libraries has just purchased a major new e-book collection for all members of the University: Master Techniques in Orthopaedic Surgery. Comprised of 15 titles covering all major orthopaedic areas, as well as specialties such as paediatrics and sports medicine, this collection offers highly detailed, step by step guidance on the latest surgical techniques and offers procedural guidance from some of the world's top surgeons. With hundreds of full colour photos from real surgical procedures, this collection is an invaluable resource for anyone with an interest in orthopaedic surgery. The collection can be accessed on SOLO (<http://solo.bodleian.ox.ac.uk>) by searching for "Master Techniques in Orthopaedic Surgery (Book Collection 2018)".

Acland's Video Atlas of Human Anatomy now available online

Following recommendations by academic colleagues and thanks to generous funding from the Nuffield Oxford Hospitals Fund, we are very pleased to announce that the popular Acland's Video Atlas of Human Anatomy is now available online to all members of the University. Organised across five volumes, Acland's shows anatomy from fresh human specimens and real body movement with step-by-step video tutorials. The atlas also includes a glossary, an A to Z index, and test yourself exams. You can access the package now via SOLO at <https://tinyurl.com/oxfordaclands> (you may be asked to enter your University Single Sign On). Please contact karine.barker@bodleian.ox.ac.uk for help, advice or more information.
