“The role of libraries in the research process”

This was the theme of the University Science and Technology Librarians Group (USTLG) 2010 Winter Meeting held at Keble College on 25 November. The event was organised by the RSL’s Lilija Ristic.

Keble College

The programme focused on the role of libraries in supporting research, the Research Excellence Framework (REF) and bibliometrics. The presentations are online at <http://www.leeds.ac.uk/library/ustlg/autumn10/index.htm>

Welcome to the monthly newsletter bringing you items of interest from the Science and Medicine Libraries of Oxford University. Please give us your comments and feedback at newsletter.rsl@bodleian.ox.ac.uk

Oxford University Research Archive (ORA)

Deposit your research in ORA – it’s very easy

When you complete an article, report, conference paper or poster, or other research output, drop a copy in ORA.

EITHER

1. Go to ORA at <http://ora.ouls.ox.ac.uk/> Click on ‘Contribute’ (top right hand corner) and follow the instructions. You’ll need your Oxford SSO (single sign-on) username and password. Enter information about the work: you need only complete the handful of yellow required boxes – we’ll do the rest. Attach the file(s) like you would an email attachment.

OR

2. email a copy of your work to ORA@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.

Help is available. See <http://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/ora> or contact ORA@bodleian.ox.ac.uk

Room bookings

The Radcliffe Science Library has IT-rich spaces that can be hired. The Training Room has a projector, interactive whiteboard and 30 workstations. The Group Study Room is suitable for smaller groups, with a meeting table, large LCD screen and projector. Wireless access is available throughout the RSL

Outreach Librarian success

We are pleased to announce that Nia Roberts, our Outreach Librarian with special responsibility to support the University departments based on the Old Road Campus, has been named as one of the winners of this year's University of Oxford's Teaching and Learning Awards.

Nia's wide range of activities include developing and delivering teaching sessions for the Division's taught M.Sc. courses in Evidence Based Health Care and Global Health and working closely with researchers in the Department of Primary Health Care in direct support of research activity such as horizon scanning for MaDOx (Monitoring & Diagnosis in Oxford). In recognition of this work Nia has been made an Honorary Senior Research Fellow at the Centre for Evidence Based Medicine.

Nia Roberts

Nia also delivers induction sessions and group and one-to-one teaching/training sessions for graduate and undergraduate students in topics ranging from basic search skills through to reference management and critical appraisal.

To find out more about our Outreach Librarians take a look at our website:
