Research Information Skills courses at the RSL

Hilary and Trinity Term 2018

Training courses are organised and delivered by science Subject Librarians at the RSL to support graduate students and researchers in their project work, to help them make use of electronic and printed collections available to them and to collect and organise them using reference management software. For details see <https://www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/science/training/research-information-training>.

Copyright Licensing Agency audit

The University will be audited by the Copyright Licensing Agency in June 2018. Is your department ready?

If you make digital copies for teaching, e.g. to upload on the VLE, do they comply with the CLA guidelines?

Further information is available at:

<https://www.l.admin.ox.ac.uk/glam/licences/copy/>.

Alexander Library of Ornithology relocation

The Alexander Library of Ornithology is moving from its current temporary location in the RSL to its new, permanent home in the Bodleian Libraries Book Storage Facility (BSF). The move will begin on 19 February 2018 and will take 4 to 5 months.

Materials transferred to the BSF it will be available to request for consultation in reading rooms. Rare books and archives will be available to order and view in the Weston Library only. For more information, please see Eating our own words!

There was a fine selection of book-themed culinary creations on display in the RSL Lounge on Thursday 1 March – for the Radcliffe Science Library's 3rd Annual Edible Book Festival.

Despite the cold weather we had 12 entries (a few got snowed off) and 92 people voted in the People's Choice Award, which went to "Tequila Mockingbird" (pictured).

Other prizes were awarded to the "Most Creative", "Most Fun", and "Most Bookish" entries. Winners were awarded a prize certificate and a limited edition 3D printed spoon. As well as free hot drinks, festival visitors could enjoy eating the entries!

Although the date was chosen because it was World Book Day, it was also University Mental Health Day – so a very suitable day for a fun community event.

Our thanks to everyone who helped make the event such a success – artists, visitors and volunteers.
