Open Access news

iSkills Open Access session coming up

- Open Access - what's happening?
Tuesday 21st June, 2-3pm, RSL Training Room
Book at <https://courses.it.ox.ac.uk/detail/TZW7>.

Revised claim process for COAF open access fees
Oxford's block grant from the Charity Open Access Fund for Oct 2015-Sep 2016 has now been fully spent. This prompts a new procedure for the payment of Article Processing Charges (APCs) for research funded by six of the COAF partners - details can be found at <http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/wellcome-and-coaf-june-2016/>.

PubMed@Oxford

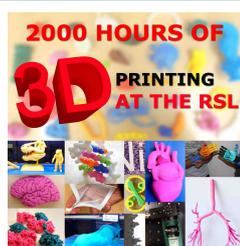

Want to find full text articles more quickly in PubMed? Then take a look at PubMed@Oxford - <http://tinyurl.com/pubmedoxford>. It's just the same as the normal PubMed search page but it automatically identifies all of the articles that are available in full-text to members of the University.

2000 hours of 3D printing at the RSL!

The RSL has completed more than 2000 hours of printing since our 3D printing service was launched in December 2014.

Details of the 3D printing service can be found at <http://libguides.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/3dprintingscanning>.

Parallel Universe - reminder

Get your entries in for the 3rd Parallel Universe poetry competition! Details at www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/science/poetry-competition-2016.

Vacation opening hours at the RSL

Vacation opening hours start Monday 20th June at the RSL - we will be open 8.30am-7pm weekdays, 10am-2pm Saturdays and closed Sundays.

Vacation loans from the RSL

Books which normally have a one-week loan period in the RSL can be borrowed for the whole of the summer vacation from 8th week onwards. The due date will be 11th October (Tuesday of 1st week Michaelmas).

Bodleian Health Care Libraries MSD focus groups

Many thanks to the MSD researchers that took part in the first of our focus groups looking at our services and your information needs. We will be running further sessions to find out your thoughts about ways to improve our library services, collections, and spaces to help you in your studies and research, so please watch this space for further details or contact us at hcl-enquiries@bodleian.ox.ac.uk to register your interest.

Graduating students - reminder about loans and fines

If you are leaving Oxford University this year, please remember to return any outstanding loans you may have with the Bodleian Libraries before you graduate, and clear any outstanding charges.

You can pay outstanding fines of £2 or more online with a credit card:

- Bodleian Health Care Libraries: <http://tinyurl.com/BHCLfines>
- Radcliffe Science Library: <http://tinyurl.com/RSLfines>

You can also pay in person using cash or cheques at any of the Bodleian Libraries which has a lending service.

RSL readers learn Go

To link in with our recent display – ‘Computer Beats Human: AlphaGo crosses an AI threshold’ – the RSL hosted 3 lunchtime drop-in sessions offering an introduction to the board game Go. Members of the Oxford Go Club showed visitors how the game is played, answered questions and guided people as they ‘had a Go’. Interest ranged from people who had never played the game before to seasoned players who have competed in national tournaments!

Coming soon - Cairns Library Study Pod

Thanks to the generous funding provided by the Nuffield Oxford Hospitals Fund, we're pleased to announce that we will be installing a "study pod" in the foyer area of the Cairns Library. This will be available for staff and students to book as a meeting/study space. Plans are currently being drawn up and the study pod will be installed in the near future.

Graduating students - outstanding PCAS credit

Your PCAS account will remain open for two years, so you can carry on using it if you return to Oxford. Refunds can only be given in limited circumstances (terms and conditions can be found at www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/using/copy/pcas/pcas-tcs).

Psychology tests archive

The Department of Experimental Psychology has donated an historical archive of psychology tests to the Radcliffe Science Library. They are available for reference and research only, and cannot be borrowed. A full list of the tests and their contents can be found in the Psychology LibGuide (<http://ox.libguides.com/psychology>). To find them in SOLO (<http://solo.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/>), type "psychology test collection" in the search box. They cannot be searched for individually by name, but they are listed under the catalogue entry. To request a test, first click on the Details & Links tab to find the number of the test, then request it using the Find & Request tab.

Preparing for life after Oxford – NHS online resources for new doctors

If you're starting work in the NHS this summer and want access to online databases, ebooks and full text online journals then you need to know about NHS OpenAthens, the username and password system used by the NHS to provide access to online resources. Access is available from anywhere with an Internet connection. Nationally-available resources include bibliographic databases such as Medline and Embase, as well as hundreds of online textbooks and journals and tools such as The BNF. Your OpenAthens account also gives you access to resources purchased by your local Trust library service.

You can register for OpenAthens at <https://openathens.nice.org.uk/> as soon as you're in post in the NHS. If you register from a PC on the NHS network or with an NHS email address, your account will be created automatically and immediately. For more information or to get a demo or hands-on practice before you leave Oxford then just contact us at hcl-enquiries@bodleian.ox.ac.uk.
