Oxford Open Doors

The RSL will be open to the public as part of the Oxford Preservation Trust's Oxford Open Doors on Saturday 9 September.

Details can be found at

<https://www.oxfordpreservation.org.uk/events/open-public-radsci-0>.

RSL book moves

Level 2 is now permanently closed, and books previously shelved there have been moved upstairs to Levels 5 to 8. Updates on this and other RSL projects can be found at www.bodleian.ox.ac.uk/science/building-work

Open Day Friday 15 September

Guided tours of the RSL will be available all day for prospective students and their families.

Details can be found at

Bodleian Health Care Libraries Welcomes New Clinical Medicine Students!

Welcome to the new Fourth Year Clinical Medicine students and Graduate Entry Medicine students joining us 'up the hill' in Headington! Our libraries in all four of the OUH hospitals provide you with a wide range of facilities including:

- 24/7 access to the Cairns Library with your University Card
- Bookable Group Study and Training Rooms at the Cairns Library and Knowledge Centre
- Quiet study spaces away from busy wards and classrooms
- Multiple copies of Clinical Reading Lists textbooks available in print and (in many cases) online - see <http://tinyurl.com/gsstygl> for our online reading lists
- Laptop and iPads that you can borrow
- 1-2-1 help and advice on search skills, managing references and a range of other topics

Keep an eye out later in September for our emails with details of your NHS OpenAthens username and password - these will let you access the online content that's purchased nationally for NHS staff in England.

Mental Health, Social Media and the Internet: Bodleian-led Web Archive Collection

As one of the six Legal Deposit Libraries in the UK, the Bodleian is actively involved in the Legal Deposit UK Web Archive, a project that aims to preserve UK websites for future research. As well as the "general collection" of the UK web, the Legal Deposit Libraries curate themed special collections. Recent collections have included the 2015 General Election, the First World War centenary and the UK response to the Ebola crisis.

The Bodleian Libraries is currently curating a collection on "Mental Health, Social Media and the Internet" looking at the following themes: Addiction, Body Image, Inclusivity vs. Cyberbullying, Social Media Usage Impact on Mental Health, and material relevant to mental health, social media and the internet more generally.

The web sources we will be considering are academic research, online news pieces, social media initiatives/ organisations/charities, blogs, forums and social media accounts. Only UK based websites can be included.

We are looking for suggestions of websites for potential inclusion in the collection. Please send suggestions to Iram Safdar (iram.safdar@bodleian.ox.ac.uk) or Carl Cooper (carl.cooper@bodleian.ox.ac.uk). We will be working on the collection until May 2018.

Open Access news

Bodleian iSkills: Open Access Oxford - what's happening?

Wednesday 20 September, 11am-12pm, Manor Road Building, Seminar Room A.

Book at <http://ox.libguides.com/workshops/OAO>.

New Oxford policy for RCUK Open Access block grant

Research Committee has approved a revised policy for allocating funds from Oxford's RCUK Open Access block grant, in order to best manage the limited funds remaining in our 2017/18 RCUK block grant. The new policy took effect on Monday 21st August 2017 and prioritises Article Processing Charges (APCs) for fully open access journals. Details are at <http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/2017/08/10/new-oxford-policy-for-rcuk-open-access-block-grant/>. Further information and help is available from the OA Enquiry team, openaccess@bodleian.ox.ac.uk. Emails and applications received since 21 August fall under the new policy. Applications already being processed before 21 August are not affected.

COAF Block Grant update

Oxford's Charity Open Access Fund Block Grant for 2016-17 has now been fully spent. Researchers funded by Arthritis Research UK, Bloodwise, British Heart Foundation, Cancer Research UK or Parkinson's UK should contact the partner charity direct to request funds or guidance. Wellcome authors are unaffected. See <http://openaccess.ox.ac.uk/2017/08/30/temporary-procedure-change-for-oxford-coaf-block-grant/> for more details.

James Parkinson: the Shaking Palsy and beyond

2017 is the 200th anniversary of the publication of the first codified description of Parkinson's disease. Its author, James Parkinson, called it the Shaking Palsy. His work is showcased in a display of his writings from the collections of the Bodleian Library.

Blackwell Hall, Weston Library, 11-19 September 2017

Free Talk - Parkinson of the disease Lecture Theatre, Weston Library, 13 September 2017 5.15-6.15pm Professor Brian Hurwitz

A talk exploring James Parkinson's contributions to the print culture of his day.

This event is free but places are limited so please complete our booking form to reserve tickets in advance - see <https://tinyurl.com/ybzjakq7>

Weekend Staffing at the Cairns Library

In response to Reader feedback we are piloting a staffed service at weekends at the Cairns Library over 2017. The library will be staffed 1-5pm where possible Saturdays and Sundays between Saturday 2 September to Sunday 10 December 2017.

The Book Collection will only be open when the library is staffed - to access it, please call 01865 221936 on the day to check that a member of staff is on duty. If the library is not staffed by 1.15pm please assume the library will remain unstaffed for the day.

The rest of the library will be accessible 24/7 with a valid Bodleian Health Care Libraries Card or a University of Oxford Card (Bod card).
