Search Tip 1: Choose search terms

- AND - all words must be present in search results
e.g. tax AND royal family
- OR - one or other word must be present
e.g. royal OR king OR queen
- Quote marks - for a specific phrase
e.g. “tax avoidance”
- *Truncation finds alternative word endings
e.g. avoid*
- Proximity operators (NEAR, ADJ, SAME, w/ etc)
- words must appear near one another.

Search Tip 2: What are you searching?

- News
- Opinion pieces e.g. editorials, columns, letters
- Ephemera e.g. weather, horoscopes, crosswords, cartoons, adverts
- Supplements / Features
- Records of birth, marriages, deaths

Search Tip 3: Where are you searching?

Searching full text can return too many results

Searching headlines is unreliable

Lead paragraph can be a good compromise

Search Tip 4: Mind your language!

- Language may be emotive, colloquial, puns etc.
- Some regular columns always keep the same title
- Historic - what language would have been used at the time?

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THE CHURCH.—On Monday last a chapter was held at the Collegiate Church, for the purpose of electing a fellow, in the room of the Rev. John Clowes, M. A., whose resignation we lately announced, when the Rev. Richard Parkinson, M. A., theological lecturer to the clerical institution at St. Bees, Cumberland, and incumbent of Whitworth, in this county, was elected to the vacant fellowship. Mr. Parkinson is known as the writer of two volumes of sermons, which have been well received by the public.

We understand that the Rev. H. Raikes, who is appointed to preach the anniversary sermon, on Whit Monday, at the Collegiate Church, is the nephew of the late Robert Raikes, Esq., of Gloucester, the benevolent and generally acknowledged founder of Sunday schools.

On Sunday morning last a sermon was preached at St. Thomas's Church, Ardwick, in behalf of the Sunday

CHAMBERLAIN BACK TO-DAY: "FRIENDLY TALK WITH HITLER TO GO ON

MR. NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN IS FLYING BACK FROM BERCHTESGADEN TO LONDON TO-DAY.

An official announcement in Berchtesgaden last night said:

"The Fuehrer conferred with Mr. Chamberlain at Obersalzberg to-day. An extensive and open exchange of opinion on the present situation took place.

"Mr. Chamberlain returns to England to-morrow in order to confer with the British Cabinet.

"A new conference will take place in a few days."

The announcement was sensational. It was made when Mr. Chamberlain returned to his Berchtesgaden hotel after a three-hour talk with Hitler.

On his return Mr. Chamberlain said:

CHESNEY'S LAST LETT

JUST before he shot himself in a wood near Cologne, black-bearded, amazing Ronald Chesney posted his last letter.

It was to his German girl-friend, Sonia Winnickes. It was written in German.

Yesterday, in an Ealing, London, coroner's court, the letter was translated and read to the coroner by

Here is what the officer read:

"Darling, my darling, in spite of the fact you have told me you love me, you didn't come to the telephone, or come up to see me.

"I want to look into your eyes once again and hold you close.

"You know I am not guilty.

behind me, and in view of the fact that I didn't see you this evening. I am ending everything.

"Forget me and find another. You must be happy.

"Tonight I knocked at your window, but I suppose your father locked you in. Just when I wanted to see you once again he would not let me.

25,000 COMPETITORS FOR BEAUTY PRIZES

Huge Total Reached in Our Contest.

REMEMBER JANUARY 15.

The Daily Mirror £1,000 Beauty Competition for Women War Workers, which is arousing such general interest throughout the country, has just scored another great success.

During the week-end the total of competitors aspiring to fame as Britain's Beauty Queens reached 25,000.

This means that the total of 12,000 competitors who competed in the famous English Beauty Contest organised by The Daily Mirror twelve years ago, in response to a challenge from the United States, has been more than doubled in the present contest—a great record which is most convincing testimony of its tremendous popularity everywhere.

North Korea warned it would not cave in to Donald Trump's demands over missile tests, sparking fears the devastating war with the US was only a matter of time.

As the American president's warships headed to the region amid claims he was set to launch a pre-emptive strike, capital Pyongyang threatened to blitz American targets with nuclear attacks.

North Korea's only ally China pleaded with the two sides to pull back from the brink of war and even US President Trump appealed for calm as the world slid dangerously towards a conflict that would have catastrophic effects.

But dictator Kim Jong-un threatened to "ravage" US attackers and warned that their military bases and "the headquarters of evil" in South Korea would be "pulverized within a few minutes".

A statement from North Korea said: "Our toughest counteraction against the US and its vassal forces will be taken in such a merciless manner as not to allow the aggressors to survive."

Vice Foreign Minister Han Song-ryol added: "We've got a powerful nuclear deterrent already in our hands. We certainly will not keep our arms crossed in the face of a US pre-emptive strike."

Nexis UK

20,000 news sources from around the World

UK coverage:

- 689 UK newspapers
- Most UK broadsheets 1980s onwards
- Tabloids, local and specialist papers start more recently
- The Telegraph starts in 2000.
- The Financial Times is embargoed for 30 days

Nexis UK demo:

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis UK website. At the top, the LexisNexis logo is on the left, and a navigation bar contains links for Home, Power Search, News, Companies, Market Insight, Biographies, Legal, and Sources. On the right of the navigation bar are links for Alerts, Sign In, and Register, along with a dark mode toggle. Below the navigation bar is a large search bar with the placeholder text "Enter terms, sources, companies, or citations". To the right of the search bar are two filters: "All available dates" and "All content types", both with dropdown arrows. A search icon is on the far right of the search bar. Below the search bar are three tabs: "Recents & Favorites", "Advanced search", and "Search tips". A "Dossier" section is visible, with a dropdown arrow and the text "Dossier". Below this are two links: "Find a Company" and "Create a Company List". At the bottom of the page, the LexisNexis logo is on the left. In the center, there are links for "About LexisNexis", "Privacy policy", and "Cookie Policy". On the right, there are links for "Terms & conditions" and "Sign in | Register". The RELX logo is on the far right, with "Copyright © 2024 LexisNexis" below it. A small blue circle with a white question mark is in the bottom right corner.

what AI tools are useful to use when studying with newspapers as a source?

When studying with newspapers as a source, various AI tools can help with summarization, fact-checking, language processing, and analysis. Here are some useful AI tools:

1. Summarization & Key Point Extraction

- ChatGPT or Claude AI – Generate concise summaries of long articles.
- Quillbot Summarizer – Provides bullet-point or paragraph summaries.
- TLDRTThis – Extracts key points and removes fluff from articles.

2. Fact-Checking & Credibility Analysis

- Google Fact Check Explorer – Verifies claims from reputable sources.
- Logically AI – Identifies misinformation and analyzes credibility.
- NewsGuard – Rates news outlets based on journalistic standards.

Help with

1. Text Analysis & Language Processing
2. Multilingual Translation & Accessibility
3. Citation & Research Management
4. Sentiment & Bias Detection

Be critical and cross-check. You are responsible for any Gen-AI you decide to use. <https://www.ox.ac.uk/students/academic/guidance/skills/ai-study>
