CREATIVE COMMONS IMAGES

Creative Commons Search - Creative Commons Search

This portal facilitates searches of Google Images, Wikimedia Commons and other sources for material published under a CC licence. You can also search directly in Google Images using the “labelled for re-use” tool. Be aware of the possibility of "false positives" in the returned results: it is important to check that the material really has been published under a CC licence or is in the public domain by clicking through to the hosting website and reading the copyright/reuse information.

Flickr Commons - <https://www.flickr.com/commons>

The Blue Diamond Gallery - <http://www.thebluediamondgallery.com/>

Text based images under CC BY SA licenses. Useful for dictionary, scrabble tile and word cloud style images.
