

John Johnson Collection: pre-1960 ephemera The South African War

This section has not been catalogued or digitised

Extent: 7 boxes and 3 folders (outsize material)

Box 1

The Prelude to the War

Earlier Rebellions

The Jameson Raid

The issue of Chinese slavery

The Progress of War

The Siege and Relief of Mafeking

Other campaigns

The non-military services

Concentration camps

A Soldier's Life

Prisoners of War, a magazine

see also The Gram by the Earl of Rosslyn at end of box

Maps

Correspondence

Army currency

Christmas and Greetings cards

Box 2

The Attitude to War

Patriotic ballads and hymns

Fund-raising charities, relief funds and benefits (including The Absent-Minded Beggar)

Patriotic war journals

The Boer opinion

Box 3

The Peace

The return of the City Imperial Volunteers

The return of Lord Kitchener and the Troops

The memorial and thanks-giving services

Souvenirs

War Games and novelties

Book prospectuses

Box 4

Meetings and publications of societies and newspapers

Liberalism:

The Liberal Publication Dept.

The National Liberal Federation

League of Liberals against aggression and militarism

The National Reform Union

“Stop the War” Committee

The South Africa Conciliation Committee

The Imperial South African Association

The Labour Leader publishing department

Newspapers

The South African Free Press Committee

The South African Bulletin

The Daily News

The Review of Reviews

War against War in South Africa

Meetings and lectures

Miscellaneous

Box 5

Publications issued by political bodies

Liberal Publications Department

Liberal League Publications

Transvaal Committee

Manchester Transvaal Committee

National Union of Conservative and Constitutional Association

Stop the War Committee

Morning Leader publications - the London Liberal newspaper

The South African Conciliation Committee

The South African Conciliation Committee: regional branches

Labour Leader publishing department

Box 6

Pamphlets and publications

Pamphlets

Divided opinions and refutations over the causes of the War
Support for the War and Army Magazines

Protest and Christian messages against the War

The judgements, legacies and changes produced by the War
General histories and tales of the War

Publications

Britons and Boers verses and pictures

Shurey's Pictorial Budget, Feb 19 1900

Shurey's Pictorial History of the War

War Pictures, no. 1. Feb. 19 1900

Corelli, M Patriotism or Self-advertisement. South Africa Part A

A Soldier's Pocket Testament, 1900

Box 7

General publications

Soldiers of the Queen

The National Bazaar in aid of the sufferers by the War,

May 1900. Souvenir and official programme

Kisch, H The Siege of Ladysmith

Dixon, Capt C The Leaguer of Ladysmith

The Theatre of War (The Gentlewoman Magazine)

The Anglo-Boer War. A photographic record

The South African War folders

Folder I

Journals

Comic Home Journal (Grand Battle Number)
The Daily Graphic
The Graphic

Folder II

Illustrated Journals

Illustrated London News
Illustrated Mail
Illustrated War Special
Pictorial Life
Shurey's Illustrated

Folder III

South African Journals

Bloemfontein Post
Cape Argus
Mafeking Mail
Natal Mercury
Pretoria Friend
Standard and Digger's News
Die Volkstem

Supplements, notices and maps

Folder IV

Early South African Journals

Bechuanaland News [17.10.1890]
Buluwayo Sketch [12.01.1894]
Krugersdorp Standard [10.12.1898]
Mashonaland Farms [02.06.1893]
Matabeleland News and Mining Record [07.08.1894]
Native Opinion and Guardian [28.05.1896]
The Press [22.04.1896]
War against War in South Africa [19.01.1900]