Use of Oxford e-resources

Oxford subscribes to a wide range of e-resources, e-journals and e-books to support your research and study. Use of these is governed strictly by licence agreements.

Remember:

- E-resources may be used for study and research but NOT for commercial purposes
- You may NOT share your password or pass content from e-resources to anyone else
- Systematic downloading or viewing of excessive amounts of data is strictly forbidden

Failure to comply may result in:

- Referral to the University Proctors
- Publishers withdrawing content from the whole university

The Bodleian iSkills workshops develop your skills in information discovery and scholarly communications, covering a variety of resources across a wide range of disciplines. They are primarily aimed at University of Oxford students and staff and, for particular workshops, Oxford University Hospitals (OUH) staff.

Our workshops cover:

- Information discovery and searching for scholarly materials
- Endnote, RefWorks, Zotero and Mendeley for managing references and formatting footnotes and bibliographies
- Keeping up to date with new research
- Measuring research impact
- Understanding copyright and looking after your intellectual property
- Open Access publishing and complying with funder mandates for open access
- Managing your research data
