BODLEIAN LIBRARIES
READING ROOM
WIRELESS SERVICE

Welcome to the Bodleian Libraries Reading Room Network Service

Please log on using your "patron barcode", that is the number written immediately above the barcode on your Reader Card (University Card for University members) and your OLIS patron password. This will authorise you to use the network service to access library resources and the wider internet outside Oxford. The system will remember that your laptop or PDA has been authorised for an hour after you have last been active. After that time, you will have to log on again.

Barcode:

Password:

If you do not know your password, it may still be set to its default value. For cards issued in the last few years, the default password is your date of birth in the form 01JAN1970. Older cards were issued with the password set to the barcode number. If your password is set to be the same as your barcode, the system will not accept it and you must reset it, which you can do through the "Patron Functions" section of OLIS.

For this purpose, OLIS can be accessed here. Note that it takes around five minutes for a changed password to be passed to the network service, in which time you may not be able to log on.

If you have forgotten your password then you should ask library staff. The library staff at any of the OLIS libraries at which you are a member will be able to reset your password for you.

If you are a member of the University, you can use your VPN client now to bypass this log in process.

Username:

Barcode on your Bodleian card

Password: Set your password at:

Needs to be done before visiting the library

Logging in to Services – Single Sign On (2)

Summary: getting hold of the book you need

1. Look for copies in your subject library and college library which show both 'Item in place' and 'Loanable'
2. If there are none, click 'Request' and look for a "Borrow From" option in the list of delivery locations
3. If there are no In Place items and no Borrow From options, then it is likely the only copy available to you is a copy from offsite storage

SOLO – Help (1)
