SOLO – Print books

The screenshot displays the SOLO library system interface. At the top, the book 'Dark continent : Europe's twentieth century' by Mazower, Mark is shown with its cover image and details: 1999 | London : Penguin | xv, 495 p. : maps ; 20 cm. Below the book details, there is a 'Find & Request' button. A callout box highlights the instruction: 'Before requesting, check for 'item in place' copies - it will be quicker for you to fetch it from the shelf than to wait for a request'. The interface also shows 'EXPORT OPTIONS' (Excel, Citation, Print, Permalink, Email, BibTeX, Endnote) and 'FIND & REQUEST' options. A list of libraries is shown, including Green Templeton College Library, Law Library, and Social Science Library. A callout box points to the 'Social Science Library' entry, which is highlighted in yellow. Another callout box points to the 'Social Science Library' entry in the 'Find & Request' section, which is also highlighted in yellow. The 'Find & Request' section shows the book is 'Available' in the 'Book Collection' with the call number 'HV6025.ROU 2015'. A callout box points to the 'Item in place' status, which is highlighted in yellow. The 'Item in place' status is also highlighted in yellow in the 'Find & Request' section. The 'Find & Request' section also shows the book is 'Available' in the 'Book Collection' with the call number 'HV6025.ROU 2015'. A callout box points to the 'Scan & Deliver' button, which is highlighted in yellow.

Summary: getting hold of the book you need

1. Look for copies in your subject library and college library which show both 'Item in place' and 'Loanable'
2. If there are none, click 'Request' and look for a "Borrow From" option in the list of delivery locations
3. If there are no In Place items and no Borrow From options, then it is likely the only copy available to you is a copy from offsite storage

Use of Oxford e-resources

Oxford subscribes to a wide range of e-resources, e-journals and e-books to support your research and study. Use of these is governed strictly by licence agreements.

Remember:

- E-resources may be used for study and research but NOT for commercial purposes
- You may NOT share your password or pass content from e-resources to anyone else
- Systematic downloading or viewing of excessive amounts of data is strictly forbidden

Failure to comply may result in:

- Referral to the University Proctors
- Publishers withdrawing content from the whole university

SOLO – Help (14)

The image shows a screenshot of the SOLO search interface. The top navigation bar is dark blue and contains the SOLO logo, the University of Oxford logo, and links for NEW SEARCH, BROWSE, HELP, NEED MORE?, and TAGS. The 'HELP' link is highlighted with a yellow square. To the right of these links are icons for a clock and a pin, and a user profile dropdown for 'Rhodes, Sarah'. Below the navigation bar is a search bar with the placeholder text 'Enter your search here' and a 'Search Everything' dropdown menu. To the right of the search bar is an 'ADVANCED SEARCH' button. On the right side of the interface, there is a 'Bodleian Live Chat' window. The window has a title bar with a green circle and the text 'Bodleian Live Chat'. Below the title bar is a large image of the Bodleian Libraries building. At the bottom of the window is a text input field with the placeholder text 'Type here to chat. Press ENTER to send.' and a 'LIVE CHAT' button on the left side of the window.

Purpose of this guide

This guide is intended for students and researchers studying Slavonic and East European Studies at the University of Oxford, although students and researchers from any field may find it useful.

The ongoing war in Ukraine means that some of the sources we indicate here may cause offence or distress. As the Collection Management Policy explains, our purpose is to provide the material our users need - whether or not this material accords with the convictions of staff members. We remind users to attend to their wellbeing, as they pursue their study of this region - and to address any questions or concerns to Eleanor Peers, the Subject Consultant.

iSkills Workshops for Postgraduates

The screenshot shows the Bodleian Libraries website header with navigation links: Libraries, Collections and resources, Services, Ask and support, Join, and About. The breadcrumb trail is: Home > Ask and support > iSkills workshops. On the left, a sidebar titled 'Ask a librarian' includes a 'Workshops' dropdown menu with options: Reference management handouts and videos, Open scholarship handouts and videos, Medical Sciences and OUH Trust handouts and videos, Finding scholarly materials handouts and videos, Getting started guides, How to guides, and Subject librarians. The main content area is titled 'iSkills workshops' and describes the workshops as developing skills in information discovery and scholarly communications for University of Oxford students and staff. It lists topics covered: Information discovery, reference management (Endnote, RefWorks, Zotero, Mendeley), keeping up to date with research, measuring research impact, understanding copyright, open access publishing, and managing research data. A 'Find a workshop' section states that workshops run throughout the term and that a Single Sign-On (SSO) is required to book a course.

iSkills workshops

The Bodleian iSkills workshops develop your skills in information discovery and scholarly communications, covering a variety of resources across a wide range of disciplines. They are primarily aimed at University of Oxford students and staff and, for particular workshops, Oxford University Hospitals (OUH) staff.

Our workshops cover:

- Information discovery and searching for scholarly materials
- Endnote, RefWorks, Zotero and Mendeley for managing references and formatting footnotes and bibliographies
- Keeping up to date with new research
- Measuring research impact
- Understanding copyright and looking after your intellectual property
- Open Access publishing and complying with funder mandates for open access
- Managing your research data
